

Department Of History and Pakistan Studies

Introduction

Department of History and Pakistan Studies was established in 2015, at Shaheed Benazir Bhutto Women University Peshawar, is a highly supportive, dynamic and learner-centered department. Department of History and Pakistan Studies offer a truly unique learning environment for female students to develop their critical thinking, communication, and research skills. The department features personalized instruction by an outstanding and experienced faculty. It offers MA and BS both in History and Pakistan Studies programmes with an emphasis on Pre and Post Partition Constitutional development and economy, Pakistan's politics, human rights, Local Government, National Security, Social Change, History of USA, History of Europe, History of Subcontinent and verity of other critical subjects. It is designed for students who intend to pursue advanced degrees, teaching, research, politics, government service, community-service, think tanks, legislative analyst, Competitive exam and journalism. Our students have opportunities to secure generous funding for collaborative research, internships, merit and need-based scholarships.

Vision Statement of Department

The Department of History and Pakistan Studies' prioritized vision is to produce sophisticated women scholars who will one day make a global difference by polishing and ostentation women scholar.

Mission Statement of Department

The department mission is to be a pioneering, leading and creative women historical school in the province, focusing on students to learning and the way they respond to the challenges of the new order in the light of their past. We also intend to promote the skill of critical, creative and out of the box thinking in students. Our cardinal mission is to induce such graduates who can work for the benefit of humanity in general and Pakistan in particular. Our subsidiary mission is to produce professionals to uplift our environment and community through leadership.

Mission Statement of BS Pakistan Studies Program

Providing an opportunity to the aspirants of Pakistan Studies to compete and excel in the growing need of research and job market, the curriculum of BS Pakistan Studies is designed with expertise in a manner to equip students with knowledge and knack in the light of modern socio-political research. The curriculum is specially designed to define and explain Pakistan from social, religious, historical, economic, political, environmental, regional and geographical perspectives. Due focus is paid to elucidate the regional and international significance of Pakistan highlighting her foreign policy. Besides, supernumerary attention is paid to expound the geographical pertinence of Pakistan. Above all, promoting pluralism, the curriculum aims at instructing and sensitizing the populace regarding minorities and their human rights violations. At core, the curriculum aims at promoting patriotism and societal values in the populace.

Program objectives

1. To engage students in goal-oriented high-level teaching and research.
2. To impart latest knowledge on both national and international issues to the students.
3. To provide environment for high quality teaching and learning through imaginative, stimulating and rigorous professional face to face practice and through online engagement.
4. To give value to each individual's right to develop her full potential in every respect.

Mission Statement of BS History Program

The mission statement of program is to educate students on drawing future image in the light of past events by rationally analyzing the past and the present.

State program objectives

1. To encourage an impartial and objective reading and writing of history so that our present and future generations may know about the merits and demerits of the deeds of their predecessors and move forward to shape up a better future for themselves.
2. The department aims at imparting education which would enable the graduates in providing the necessary data for better planning of the present and future. Without historical record, no sound planning can be done. Therefore the department envisages educating the students in not only correction of material about the past but also in recording the present social political and economic developments for the sake of future guidance and planning.
3. To produce graduates with a deeper understanding of their own history and the history of other nations so that they may contribute in bridging the gulf between the people of different nations and to help in the process of 'dialogue between civilizations.

Faculty:

InCharge

Dr Hamida Bibi

Teachers:

Miss Toheeda Begum

Miss Motia

Miss Hina Bahadur

Miss Shandana

Miss Arousa