

Realizing the continuous rise in educational expenses University took the initiatives and established the "Student Financial Aid Office". The theme of establishment of this office is to elevate the socio-economic position of the needy & deserving students by providing access to quality education through Merit and Need Based Scholarships/ Financial Assistances and other scholarships offered by different donor's agencies.

HEC Merit and Need Based Scholarship:

All the students who got admission in any undergraduate discipline at SBBWUP on open merit and are not availing any other scholarship from any other organization or have strong financial position can apply for the HEC Merit and Need Based Scholarship.

The continuation of the scholarship of already selected students is based on semester wise satisfactory academics performance.

Sister Fee Concession

University awards Sisters fee concession to two sisters who are enrolled in the University and don't enjoy any other concession or Need based scholarship of the University. The one in the highest class shall pay the full tuition fee prescribed and the other sister will pay half of the tuition fee.

Pakistan Development Foundation: Tabeer Scholarship Programme (Talent Test)

All the students enrolled in any undergraduate programme of the University eligible to apply. Under this scholarship cash prizes are distributed among 20 top students. The form can be downloaded from NTPA official website www.nta.org.pk

Pakistan Bait Ul Mall:

All the students enrolled in University are eligible to apply except those whose parents are government employees, availing any other scholarship or have strong financial position. The application form can be obtained from the photocopier shops at University or can be downloaded from Pakistan Bait ul Mall official website.

Benazir Undergraduate Scholarship Programme:

All the students enrolled in University's undergraduate programmes (on open merit) in the current session are eligible to apply except those whose parents monthly income is more than Rs.45000, availing any other scholarship or have strong financial position. The application form shall be filled online as per detailed shared by the HEC from time to time.

The continuation of the scholarship of already selected students is based on semester wise satisfactory academics performance.

HEC USAID Merit and Need Based Scholarship:

All the students enrolled in University's undergraduate programmes (on open merit) in current the session are eligible to apply except those whose parents monthly is more than Rs 60000, availing any other scholarship or have strong financial position. The application form shall be filled online as per detailed shared by the HEC from time to time.

The continuation of the scholarship of already selected students is based on semester wise satisfactory academics performance

Punjab Educational Endowment Fund :

All the students enrolled in University's undergraduate programmes (Domicile in current the session) having Punjab are eligible to apply except those, availing any other scholarship or have strong financial position. The application form shall be filled online www.peef.org.pk

The continuation of the scholarship of already selected students is based on semester wise satisfactory academics performance