Once you graduate from SBBWU we want you to have not just a degree but also a clear career direction and the confidence needed for success in your chosen field. We are committed to inculcate in our student essential personal integrity, self-discipline, empathy, humanistic outlook, and a deep sense of moral rectitude.

Since the day I took over the charge as Vice Chancellor of SBBWU, it has been my utmost desire and primary objective to make my every day more productive as much as it can be, towards the betterment of the University. I am also looking forward to carrying on the contribution of previous Vice Chancellors along with the due addition of my part to this journey of success and productivity for SBBWU.
